

Navigating Strategic Leadership in Change Management

Rochelle Howard

Attorney at Law, United States
rochellehowardlaw@gmail.com

Abstract

In the current national environment, tensions are extremely high. Divisiveness and confrontation are the automatic reactions to many disagreements. As leaders, how do we ensure our relationships foster a collaborative, forward thinking posture? How do we lead with resilience and encouragement to promote sustainable working relationships? This workshop will discuss the principles strategic leaders can use to ensure organizational and community relationships persevere through the tensions.

Keywords: Navigating Strategic Leadership in Change Management